

FCC Don't stifle competition! Open airwaves create new opportunities!
I am an early XM subscriber I travel across the Northeast I can't always find local stations. XM signals give me that opportunity. I can receive traffic and weather without surfing stations. I have tremendous variety of music choices. This would be like turning off cable or satellite TV. Stewart Schilb